

August 4, 2023

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for _____, who is currently applying for expungement of their criminal record. I have had the privilege of knowing _____ since 2020 when she went through Athena House as my client, and can attest to her growth, integrity, and commitment to positive change.

In the time that I have known _____, I have witnessed a remarkable transformation in their character and behavior. They have consistently demonstrated a strong sense of responsibility, remorse for their past actions, and a sincere desire to make amends. Through their actions and interactions, it is evident that they have taken active steps to rehabilitate themselves and become a productive member of society. She has shown exceptional dedication to personal development and improvement. Her commitment to self-improvement is not only commendable but also reflective of their genuine desire to move forward from their past mistakes. She began the work and continued to work diligently at developing new coping tools. Her perspective on life has changed significantly and she is now enrolled in school, working towards her associate degree along with certification to become a substance abuse counselor.

Furthermore, she has been an invaluable asset to our community. She actively engaged in volunteering with Athena House being a supportive role model for the clients, positively impacting the lives of those around them. Her dedication to giving back demonstrates a true sense of responsibility and empathy. Hannah is now working as a treatment support specialist with Athena House.

I am confident that _____ has learned from her past and has the potential to contribute even more positively to society if given the opportunity to expunge their criminal record. I wholeheartedly support their application for expungement and believe that it is a vital step toward their continued rehabilitation and growth.

Thank you for considering my input as part of the expungement process. It is with great honor that I recommend her for your consideration to further her in her goal to expunge her record and continue her forward progress to whatever goals she sets next. It is with great certainty that I know she will continue to exceed all our expectations in her endeavors to strive in this life and not just survive.

Sincerely,
